<http://www.jaist.ac.jp/fokcs/index.html>

Nomi, Ishikawa, Japan

March 3-4, 2012

The Forum on Knowledge Co-creation (FoKCs) is a forum where researchers and practitioners collaborate in attempting to scientifically clarify the mechanisms of creations, sharing, and applications of knowledge and to realize highly-developed knowledge societies.

The forum will have the following sessions.

1. Invited Presentation Session
2. Themed Session (The theme: "Knowledge and External World")
 - The speakers are desired to have their presentations related to the theme above.
2. General Session
3. Seeds Session
 - Work-in-progress papers will be presented in this session.
4. Poster Session

Though, (Japanese) speakers will basically have their presentations in Japanese and many (Japanese) authors will submit their papers in Japanese, presentations and papers in English are surely available.
