Abstract : Authors who are presenting at JAIST Human Life Design Area Symposium should use this template for your preparation of manuscript.

Keywords : HLD, symposium, JAIST

1. Introduction

This template is for your preparation of your manuscript. Oral speakers as well as poster presenters should use this template. Format such as font type, size, number of column, should not be changed. The authors should follow this template.

2. Page Limit

2.1 Oral Presentation

The manuscript for each oral presentation is limited from 2 to 4 pages. No additional page is allowed.

2.2 Poster Presentation

The manuscript for each poster presentation is limited to 1 page. No additional page is allowed.

3. Miscellaneous

3.1 Equation

Each equation must be presented by following equation number as an example below:

$$\lambda = \alpha / \beta \quad (1)$$

3.2 Figures, Tables, and Citation

Large figures and tables may span across both columns. A Table heading should appear above the table. A Figure captions should be placed below the figure. Use the abbreviation such as “Fig. 1”.

All figures and tales must be numbered. Make sure that the resolution of the figure or picture is high enough for “press quality”.

When you refer to an article, please describe it by number like this [1].

Table 1. An example of Table
