Pull-Out Map Of Kanazawa (all bus routes referenced from JR Kanazawa Station unless noted)

Places Of Interest In Kanazawa

Map Ref. D6

- KENROKU-EN GARDEN One of Japan's Three Sublime Gardens dating back to the 17th Century. The best times to visit: before 11 AM and after 3 PM avoid the throng. Enjoy the serene ponds and old-world teahouses. Don't miss the sprawling Seison Kaku Villa within the castle grounds, (a separate fee must be paid). This is an opulent, original home beautifully built in1863 by the 13th Lord Maeda for his mother. The soothing tsukushi garden here is best enjoyed in silence. Both the park and the villa are must see-items on the Kanazawa tour. Open: 7:00-18:00 – occasional special opening times. Fee: 300-yen for adults Bus: Kenrokuen-shita or Kencho-mae - a 3 min. walk. Bus #: 10-11-12-15-25-33-50-53-70-71-73-75-80-90-91.
- C6 ISHIKAWA MON GATES Kanazawa Castle, first built in the 1500's, was destroyed several times through the ages by sundry disasters, both natural and man-waged. The gates have managed largely to remain standing though even they have had several re-fits. The castle was restored to its former glory in 2001 but the gates remain the most mature part, at around 500 years old. Ishikawa Mon is located south of, and adjacent to Kenroku-en via a footbridge. Bus: same as Kenroku-en.
- KANAZAWA CASTLE GARDEN With 500 years of history, the rebuilt sections of Kanazawa Castle are at once the city's newest & oldest attraction! C6 Following 3 years of painstaking restoration by craftsmen skilled in centuries-old Japanese construction methods the castle was re-opened in 2001. Visitors may now stroll through the castle gardens in the ancient footsteps of Lord Maeda Toshiie. Alternatively, there are a raft of exhibits, rest areas and gift shops to entertain all with interpretive signs in English. Open: 07:00-18:00 Fee: 300-yen Bus: same as for Kenroku-en and Ishikawa Mon.
- TERASHIMA FAMILY SAMURAI HOUSE A middle-class samurai home built in 1770. The tea ceremony or "the way of tea" room and its B6 adjoining garden are a joy to behold. Open: 9:30-17:00 (closed Thurs.) Fee: 300-yen Bus: Get off at Hashiba-cho - a 3 min. walk. Bus #: 11-12-80-83-84-85-88.
- C4 OYAMA JINJA - Oyama Shrine was built in honour of Lord Maeda Toshiie, the first Maeda lord. The stained glass windows of the entrance turret bespeak the filtering in of European influences even during Japan's 200-year sakoku exclusion period. The shrine and garden are an oasis of beauty and tranguillity in the heart of downtown Kanazawa. Bus: Get off at Minami-cho and walk along the main road -5 min on your left. Bus #: 13-14-18-30-31-32-33-35-54-81-95.
- Β4 OMICHO ICHIBA MARKET - Kanazawa's pantry - a vast, labyrinthine covered market. You can find everything and anything here: from live octopus to leather shoes. Visit the florists, fishmongers, grocers, or Chinese herbalists all under one sometimes leaky roof! Omicho has been a hub of city life for over 300 years. For foreign food, visit the Diamond Store, which stocks it all from flour tortillas and French cheese to 5 minute couscous and fruit muesli. Omicho is the place to go for still-flippin'-fresh sushi with several kaiten and a-la-carte sushi restaurants to choose from. Bus: Get off at Musashigatsuji across from M'ZA Department store. #13-14-18-30-31-32-33-35-54-81-95 (Closed Sundays)
- B4-5 DAIIOII - Built in 1261, this serene and famed Zen Buddhist temple and its grounds are a peaceful oasis in a world gone mad. Participate in public Zazen meditation on Sundays (1:30PM English & Japanese or 4.30 – Japanese only), and tame your chi. Bus: Off at Heiwa-machi walk up the hill 15 min. Bus #: 20-21-83.
- E2 NINJA DERA - MYORYUJI - Said to be the Ninja Temple, it is full of trapdoors and "trick" stairs so stay on the beaten path. As if that wasn't enough, the guides at this busiest local temple are notoriously severe on those foolish enough to attempt to have a good time here so be careful. Guided tours (if you dare, and in Japanese only) must be booked. In the Teramachi district. Fee: 800-yen Open: 9:00-16:30 Bus: Off at Hirokoji walk 2 min. east on Nishi Inter Dori. Bus #: 20-21-22-25-30-31-40-41-44-45-46.
- B7 HIGASHI CHAYAGAI GEISHA DISTRICT - The Geisha have, after centuries of study and refinement, taken traditional music, dance, and art to the highest levels of beauty and skill. Walk these "teashop" streets and experience a mystical, old Japan that is fading fast. Bus: Get off at Hashiba-cho -cross over the Asanogawa Bridge & turn right. Bus #: 11-12-16-80-81-84-85-88.
- NAGAMACHI SAMURAI DISTRICT These narrow, mud-walled lanes have been the domain of local samurai families for centuries, indeed some C2/D2 are still inhabited by their descendents. The Nomura family (1-2-32 Nagamachi) welcome visitors to enjoy tea and sweets in the tearoom of their home overlooking one of the most gorgeous gardens in the city. Visit in the early morning or late evening to feel the samurai spirit that haunts these streets. Crews from all over Japan who seek to replicate the old Japan regularly use Nagamachi in film, advertising and TV production. Bus: Get off at Korinbo, cross towards the 109 Dept. store & turn right. Bus #: 13-14-20-21-22-25-33-35-40-41-44-45-46-60-64-70-71-72-81-90-92-93-94-95.
- SAIGAWA RIVER BANKS Kanazawa's playground. From Hanami (cherry blossom viewing) in spring to barbecue fun in the summer, these grassy D3/E4 slopes between Saigawa O-Hashi and Sakura Bashi are well used and well loved by all. The banks of the Saigawa are a fine spot to enjoy a picnic lunch within walking distance of busy Katamachi. Watch out, however, for the famous Saigawa hawks that can snatch a sandwich with razor sharp talons in a flash leaving you dazed, frustrated and hungry.
- E3 TERAMACHI – literally "temple town" – if you're after temples, there is no better place in town. You can't swing an umbrella in Teramachi without hitting something of religious significance so take the # 30-31 bus, get off at the Teramachi Go-chome stop and wander the streets at will - you can't
